What is time?

What is time?--The shadow on the dial, the striking of the clock, the running of the sand, day and night, summer and winter, months, years, centuries--these are but the arbitrary and outward signs--the measure of time, not time itself.

Time is the life of the soul.

Value Your Time

Know the true value of time; snatch, seize, and enjoy every moment of it. --No idleness; no laziness, no procrastination;--never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.

-Chesterfield

Time is a sort of river of passing events, and strong is its current; no sooner is a thing brought to sight then it is swept by and another takes its place, and this, too, will be swept away.

-Antonius

A Time For All Things

A little time for laughter.

--Marston

Remember that time is money.

--Franklin

Changing Time

Time cools, time clarifies; no mood can be maintained quite unaltered through the course of hours.
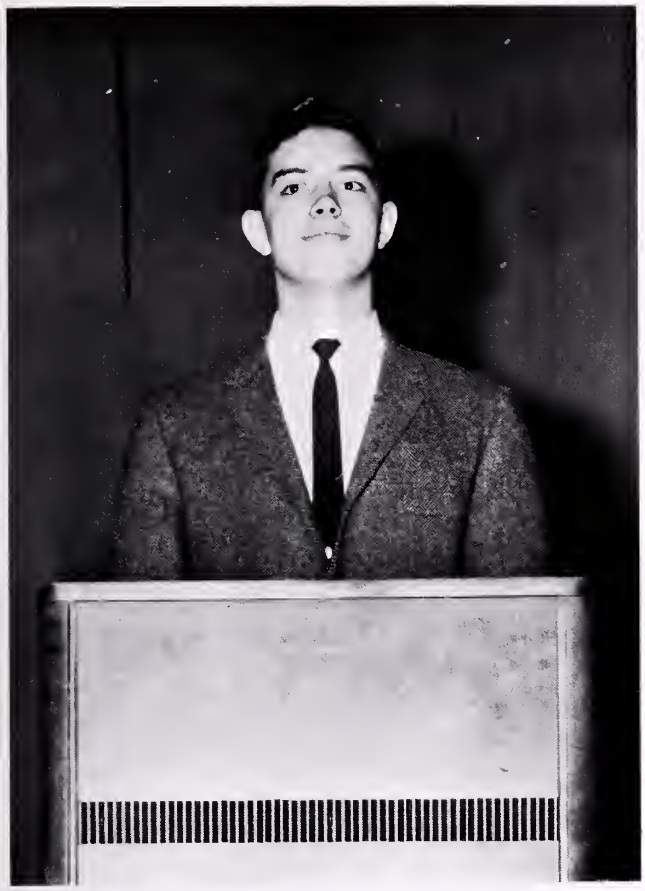
-J. Mann



A time to keep silence, and a time to speak.
--Old Testament

Life's not so short but there is always time for courtesy.
--Emerson

Time Goes

Our youth we can have but today, we may always find time to grow old.

-Berkeley

Quickly

Time goes by turns, and chance change by course, From foul to fair, from better hap to worse.

-Southwell

A Time For Faculty

Mr. A.P. Baldwin Completes 24th Year As Principal at H.H.S.

Our judgments about things vary according to the time that we think is left us to live. The time is past for the defenses have all been written. The time now is for the challenges.

We live in a time of crisis. The crisis of our time, as we are beginning slowly and painfully to perceive, is a crisis not of the hands but of the heart. It is a crisis of which the entire cause lies in the hearts of men.

The failure is a failure of desire, a failure of the spirit to imagine. With very few means, men who could imagine a common good have created great civilizations but now, with every means, with every wealth, we seem to create only ruin.

The challenge is yours. May God bless you in your efforts in the use of your time to make a better world in which to spend your very valuable time.

In Memory

1912-1995

1949-1995

In the realms of God's creation,

Kept safe from wordly strife,

The loved ones who have passed away

Enjoy a lasting life.

They're gone, but not forgotten

And always they will share

The joy of each tomorrow

In the hearts of those who care.

Autographs
